Our Correspondents.

Bessville

Our section foreman, Mr. Acuff, has moved to the section house at Bessville.

Dr. Hull preached an interesting sermon at Union Sunday.

Miss Anna Whitener spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Will Lane.

Effert Myers has returned home after a week's absence below.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander visited relatives in our vicinity Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Odette Ricketts visited Misses Iona and Ethel Rhodes Saturday night.

Mrs. W. A. Crayton and daughters visited Mrs. Hattie Bess Friday.

Farmers are still plowing and planting corn.

Mr. Brown's daughter is able to be up again.

T. J. Moore returned to his work in Mississippi a few days ago.

OLD MAN JACK.

(Arrived too late for last issue.)

Fine weather now.

Farmers are busy planting corn. Wheat, meadows and gardens are looking fine. The prospects for all kinds of fruit, except peaches, are good.

The young folks assembled at John Reed's Saturday night and rendered some good vocal music.

The Sunday school at Pine Hill was well attended last Sunday. Fifty-one scholars were present.

Monroe Ward lost a good mare last week.

The writer attended the funeral services of Dr. M. M. Reagan, at Reagan's chapel on May 19, which were conducted by Rev. John Maynard.

Died—May 18, Mrs. Emma Goldsmith, wife of Henry Goldsmith, at their home near Yount. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Halbrook. She leaves a husband, three small children, father, mother, three sisters and a host of friends to mourn her departure. Her remains were interred in the Yount cemetery.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. George Killian, one of the finest little daughters in Missouri. Mother and babe are doing fine and George is stepping high.

Mon. Robins had business in our vicinity Saturday.

Misses Lena and Revie Killian visited friends in Marquand Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Odette Ricketts visited Miss Kate Welker Sunday.

T. J. Moore, the sawmill man, who has been in Mississippi the last three months is spending a few days with his family.

Miss Reva Crayton is on the sick list this week.

W. J. Hale is suffering with a sore wrist.

Ben Bess is improving some.

Mr. Brown's daughter is sick. A sad thing about it is the girl's mother is in Illinois sick and can't come and they are strangers in our midst, but the neighbors are showing them how neighborly the Missourians are and are doing all they can for the afflicted family. Good neighbors are a blessing indeed.

P. V. Rauls was a business visitor in our midst last week.

Remember the preaching at Union May 26. Sermon by Dr. L. Hull.

OLD MAN JACK.

Union Ridge

Well, here I come with a little news again. I am slow but always sure.

Health is reasonably good.

Rev. Wm. B. Yount filled his appointment at Plainview Sunday.

Bland Seabaugh spent Sunday with Luther and Jennings Yount.

Mr. and Mrs. Barks's children are suffering with the sore eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reitzel and children visited Mrs. Reitzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yount, Sunday.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Yount is improving in some ways, and hope she will be up again before long.

Miss Ella Yount is at home again, after attending school at Will Mayfield College several months.

E. N. Barks has some of the finest strawberries we have seen in some time.

Mrs. Bee Yount and children visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Yount Sunday afternoon.

Frank Seabaugh visits over on Hog creek every Sunday, rain or shine. Wonder what's the attraction?

James Turner and daughter Miss Minnie of near Millerville visited at Rev. J. H. Yount's Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Whitebread visited Mrs. Whitebread's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Shanks, Sunday.

Some of our neighbors went fishing on Hog creek last Thursday night and say they had pretty good luck. They say they intend to go again soon, as they caught eighty fish.

Edward Lutes and family visited Mr. Lutes's mother, Mrs. Adaline Lutes, near Glen Allen Sunday.

Miss Golda Yount spent Sunday eve with Miss Ella Yount.

There is church at Union Grove every first Saturday night and Sunday. Everybody cordially invited.

Get your mower and rake from C. A. Walker, Lutesville. His goods and prices are right.

Success to THE PRESS.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Bollinger, ss.
In the Circuit court, September term, 1912.

State of Missouri, at the relation and to the use of W. L. Dunn, collector, plaintiff, against Elizabeth Sutherland and Tilsit M.

Sutherland, her husband et al, defendants.

At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorney, W. K. Chandler, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendants, Elizabeth Sutherland and Tilsit M. Sutherland are not residents of the state of Missouri:

Whereupon, it is ordered by the clerk in vacation, that said defendants be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against them in this court, the object and general nature of the petition filed is the enforcement of the lien of the state upon the real property in the petition described, situated in said county, viz:

Lot No. eleven (11), in block No. three (3), in the town of Glen Allen, Missouri, as laid off and numbered on the plat of said town. Said plat was filed for record in the recorder's office in the town of Marble Hill, Bollinger county, Missouri.

And that unless the said Elizabeth Sutherland and Tilsit M. Sutherland be and appear at this court at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the courthouse in the town of Marble Hill, in said county, on the 2nd Monday of September next, and on or before the 1st day of said term answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in THE MARBLE HILL PRESS, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in said county of Bollinger, in the state of Missouri.

JESSE A. MCGLOTHLIN, Circuit Clerk.
